RE: Speaking Invitation
 Illinois Bar Foundation
 Pinckneyville, IL
 24 October 1987

Mr. Don E. Johnson, Chairman of the Fellows of the Illinois Bar Foundation, has invited you to receive an Honorary Fellowship at their annual dinner in the Drake Oak Brook Hotel, Oak Brook, Illinois. The suggested format is for you to make brief remarks concerning the award and the legal profession. You could expect an audience of approximately 120-150 attorneys, judges and federal and state government officials. The event would be covered by Chicago print media, with Foundation photographers taking pictures for distribution to the press.

The Illinois Bar Foundation is the charitable arm of the Illinois State Bar Association. Inductees to the Foundation are recognized for their support of the Bar Association. This will be the fourth annual dinner and ceremonies of the Foundation.

You have a busy speaking schedule during the latter part of October and an important commitment on November 13 to address 500 to 1000 Illinois judges and attorneys of the Illinois State Bar Association. In your role as Director of Central Intelligence, I would prefer your accepting speaking engagements that would include financial and industrial leaders, academicians and those interested in foreign policy issues. I recommend that you decline the invitation. If you agree, I have attached a letter of regret to Mr. Johnson for your signature.

Dear Mr. Johnson:

I am extremely pleased to be elected as an Honorary Fellow of the Illinois Bar Foundation. It is an honor to be recognized by a group such as yours.

Unfortunately, as Director of Central Intelligence, my schedule is heavily committed. With great regret, I must decline your thoughtful invitation to the dinner and ceremony.

My best wishes to the Fellows of the Foundation.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ William H. Webster

Dear Judge Webster:

I am extremely pleased to inform you that the Board of Directors of the Illinois Bar Foundation has elected you an Honorary Fellow of the Illinois Bar Foundation.

The basis for this honor is the distinguished example your professional and public careers have set for the Bar of Illinois.

The Honorary Fellowship will be formally announced at the annual dinner of the Fellows of the Illinois Bar Foundation, which will be held on Saturday evening, October 24, 1987, at the Drake Oak Brook Hotel in Oak Brook, Illinois. We would be immensely honored if you would accept our invitation to be present for the annual dinner and Fellowship Ceremony.

If you are able to attend, please contact me for further details and arrangements.

Sincerely,

DON E. JOHNSON
Chairman, Fellows of the Illinois Bar Foundation
